

Holidays in the interim sector

	CONDITIONS FOR ENTITLEMENT	NUMBER OF DAYS	PAYMENT
LEGAL HOLIDAYS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You worked last year in Belgium You forwarded your holiday certificate(s) from your previous employer(s) to Page Personnel 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Maximum 20 Pro rata based on the amount of months worked last year 	Those holidays were already financed by your previous employer when you left the company. Those will thus not be paid by the interim agency the day you take them
YOUTH HOLIDAYS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You graduated last year You worked at least 1 month last year You were < 25years old when you started working 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Maximum 20 Pro rata based on the amount of legal holidays already built 	Those holidays are financed by the ONEM (National Office for Employment). It is absolutely necessary to warn the interim agency when you wish to take those holidays because they must send an electronic declaration to the Social Security
EUROPEAN HOLIDAYS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You didn't work last year (or you worked in another country) You worked at least 3 months for one or many employers this year in Belgium 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Maximum 20 	Those days are to be considered as an advance on the payment of your double holiday pay. In the interim sector the simple and double holiday pay are paid prematurely, every week with your salary. There will thus be no remuneration on the day of your holiday. Those days are assimilated for the calculation of your pension, your end of year prime and for the unemployment benefit
UNPAID LEAVE	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You didn't work last year You didn't work at least 3 months this year You are not eligible for the youth holidays 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Unlimited depending on the approval of the manager or N+1 	Each holiday that you will take during your interim mission will automatically be considered as unpaid leave. Those days will not be assimilated for the calculation of your pension, your end of year prime, nor for the unemployment benefit